

Labor Law Posters

The US Department of Labor and many states, including Connecticut, require that posters or notices be posted in the workplace, in an area frequented by employees, in regards to many of the statutes and regulations enforced by various agencies.

gbac can provide you with posters to assure your compliance with these Federal and State requirements:

Compliance Management Services

Looking for an automatic compliance solution instead of a poster? Consider our compliance service: an annual plan where clients automatically receive mandatory poster updates as soon as changes occur. With this plan, compliance is automatic and worry-free!
